San Diego Forensic Consultants Association

Using Collaborative Teams & Experts in Conflict Resolution*

Nancy Bickford, Esq., MBA, CPA – a Certified Family Law Specialist with a practice devoted exclusively to Family Law matters. Nancy's extensive background in business administration, accounting and law make her uniquely qualified to assist clients in a multitude of areas.

Anne Janda – a collaborative coach. Anne is a licensed clinical social worker with over 30 years experience in marriage counseling and assisting couples through separation and divorce. Her specialties also include anger and stress management. Her interest in collaboration and mediation extends to the workplace where she is a subject matter expert in managerial mediation, and assists employees with coworker conflict resolution.

Sandra Popescu, CPA – a Certified Valuation Analyst and a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst. In private practice since 1988, Sandra specializes in business valuations, economic loss analyses, forensic accounting, and marital dissolutions, including Collaborative Divorce™. Basically, she assists clients in understanding their economic situation and in achieving an equitable conclusion. Sandra Popescu can be reached at 858.509.3947 or sandy@prodatafs.com.

* A note from Dr. Dan ... This program is more about the concept of the team approach and how it may apply to many of our forensic specialties than it is about conflict resolution in divorce/family law cases specifically.
