“The Legal, Financial, & Psychological Aspects of Divorce”

featuring Family Law Attorney Delene St. John, Certified Divorce Specialist Sandra Popescu, CPA, CVA, and Clinical Psychologist Thomas Hollander

If you are contemplating a divorce or already in the divorce process, this workshop is for you. The workshop will present information about divorce mediation and the traditional adversarial process. Family Law Attorney, Delene St. John, will educate the participants on all aspects of divorce law. Ms. St. John is a pre-trial Settlement Officer for the Family Law Superior Court of North County and has been in practice for 16 years.

Sandra Popescu will present financial issues of divorce which will include community/separate property, pensions, income available for support, and family support issues. Ms. Popescu is trained as a Certified Divorce Specialist to evaluate settlement options for dividing marital property, pensions, and awarding child and spousal support. The Divorce Choice$ Analysis she presents will include an example of the resulting Property Division, Cash Flow, and Net Worth worksheets along with discussions regarding the tax consequences of the choices. As a Certified Valuation Analyst, she will also provide a brief discussion regarding business valuations if a professional practice, partnership, family business, or other business is involved.

Dr. Thomas Hollander will address the family dynamics involved in a divorce. Dr. Hollander is a clinical psychologist with more than 20 years experience.

Divorce is always a stressful time, physically and financially. A better understanding of the process up front can help ease some of that stress.
